CAREFIRST

CareFirst, formerly Southern Tier Hospice and Palliative Care, based in Corning, New York, has been serving Chemung, Schuyler, and Steuben counties since 1981. As an independent not-for-profit organization, and the only home-based hospice provider in this area, CareFirst continues to grow through the generous support of our community.

CareFirst is the source for excellent care, support, and knowledge that enable individuals to cope with serious illness and all that comes with it. We embrace families by respecting and empowering them to remain together at home, living their lives to the fullest. CareFirst strengthens our community through partnerships with other community organizations and healthcare professionals, and by providing education and advocacy.

■ Hospice Care: CareFirst believes everyone has the right to set their own path in life, even when that life may be nearing its natural end. The CareFirst team provides families with what they need to honor those choices and stay together, while bringing hope, control, comfort, and ease.

■ Palliative Care: Navigating the difficult course that comes with serious illness at any stage can be hard for a family to do on their own. CareFirst offers the guidance, advice, and support to empower families to chart that course and stay on that path.

■ Grief Services: Loss takes many forms and everyone heals from grief in their own way. CareFirst stands ready to provide expertise and direct support so each aching heart can find a way to mend.

■ Education: CareFirst is a premier source of knowledge and expertise on the medical specialty of palliative care, as well as grief and home care. By sharing this knowledge and advocating for the needs of those we serve, we enable our community to continue to grow stronger.

“CareFirst brought joy into our home.”
