SUPPORTING YOU, EMBRACING FAMILY, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

GAIN POWERFUL LIFE EXPERIENCES — AND NEW FRIENDS

HOW CAN I HELP?

Direct Care Volunteers Provide respite and companionship in a patient's home, a nursing home, or a hospital.

Grief Support Volunteers Provide telephone and hotline support to family members coping with loss.

Office Volunteers Support our administrative staff with mailings, phone calls, and other needs.

Courier Volunteers Help to deliver medications, flowers, and provide other transportation needs.

Fundraising Volunteers Assist with our special events and help raise awareness in the community.

WHAT IS CAREFIRST?

We are a not-for-profit, community-based program providing residents of Chemung, Schuylar, and Steuben counties with complete hospice, palliative care, and grief services.

WHY ARE VOLUNTEERS SO IMPORTANT AT CAREFIRST?

- By simply providing time and a listening ear, you contribute a priceless gift to CareFirst's patients and their loved ones.
- You enable CareFirst's hospice professionals to better focus on patient care.
- You become an integral part of the CareFirst team, enhancing our care by developing close ties with patients and family members.
- You gain valuable experience, life skills, and the satisfaction that you have made a difference.

HOW DO I SIGN UP?

We invite anyone with an interest in providing support to CareFirst to apply to become a volunteer. To learn more about volunteering at CareFirst, give us a call at 607.962.3100.
